NUMBER 45

FORMER RESIDENTS

Of Bourbon Who Will Attend the Home-Coming at Louisville.

The plans for Home-Coming week in Louisville, June 13 to 17, are practically complete, and any one at all familiar with them will agree that they point to the largest gathering in the history of the South. The very lowest estimate, based upon acceptance cards and letters on file at the headquarters of the Louisville Commercial Club, point to an attendance of over 55,000 ex-Kentuckians. Only a small portion of this number indicated on their acceptance card the county of their birth.

Below will be found a list of former residents of Bourbon county, who have accepted the Home-Coming invitation. This list by no means represents the attendance of those who went from this county. Practically every one accepting the invitation has stated that he or she will be accompanied by from two to five others.

The Home-Coming Association at Louisville informs us that Bourbon county will, according to its estimates, be represented by 930 former citizens of this county during the big June event.

It is expected that all former citizens of our county who visit Louisville, will come to their old homes as soon as they have partaken fully of Louisville's hospitality.

The following is the list of ex-Bourbons referred to:

Miss K. M. Kleiser, Texhona, Okla.; Miss Loula Thomas, Caldwell, Tex.; Joe Will Hawkins, Santa Rosa, N. M.; H. C. Speaker Cannon Kissed the Girl.

To be embraced and inoculated on the lips by the speaker of the House of Representatives, was the unexpected honor that fell to the lot of Miss Anna Cannon, a pretty girl of Greencastle, Ind., recently, while being taken through the capitol at Washington. Miss Cannon was with a party of girl friends when she was introduced to Speaker Cannon. "Why, you must be a relative of mine," exclaimed the statesman, and taking the astonished girl in his arms, he kissed her squarely on the lips.

Asked Dancers to Pray for Dying

Just as the gayety of a French masked ball in one of the fashionable restaurants in the Montmartre, Paris, was at its height, a man wearing a mask called out and asked the dancers to stop and pray for a person who was about to die. He then walked up to a woman and plunged a knife into her heart. As she sank to the floor with a gasp the crowd closed around the man and tore the mask from his face. He proved to be the woman's husband. She had left their home with her lover, in whose company she was making merry at the ball, while her heart-broken husband sat brooding alone.

A TRIUMVIRATE OF HOCUS FOCUS.

In an article plainly inspired at the War Department and written by "Dickinson," we find the following estimate of the powers, glories, and lasting qualities of the three men who dispute with the giant life insurance companies the title of the "Big Three":

"Mr. Roosevelt will be only fifty years old when his present term expires. Mr. Taft will be only fifty-two; and Mr. Root will be sixty-four. They will be the masters of the Republican party even after a new generation of voters—the one that is now coming on with its imagination inflamed by the glories of Roosevelt—has taken the place of the present one. While in absolute sympathy personally, they represent intellectual variants that converse at a common point, and they will do more than any other group of men alive to hold the fighting line of their party intact."

In plain English, these three men have conspired to hold the reins of government for another generation, at least. In order to remain "masters of the Republican party," as they are at present, and to perpetuate "the glories of Roosevelt," Barnes, and the whole brood of strenuities and acrobats, political and physical, Mr. Taft is to be the next President, because he "is not in sympathy with many of the economic reforms that are being fought by his chief, notably railroad rate legislations and the inheritance tax." Mr. Roosevelt himself might encounter trouble in raising money from the trusts and in securing votes from the people on account of these proposed reforms. If he were the candidate; but Mr. Taft would satisfy all men, all trusts, and many women who admire a fat man with a big mustache. Taft is, therefore, to be the candidate in 1908; and Roosevelt is to be Secretary of State, and from that perch is to see that his policies are carried out by Taft and Root until 1916, when he is again to re-enter the White House for eight years more. He will then be only sixty-six, and Taft, who will be only sixty-eight, will succeed him, and remain in office for eight years more. By that time the new generation "inflamed by the glories of Roosevelt" will have had fun enough for one generation. We'll get a new deal then, and wipe out Rooseveltism, Dingleyism, and triple-headed bossism forever.

REPUBLICAN PATRIOTS OF KANSAS

What a happy family the Republican politicians of Kansas are. Gov. Hoch seems to have a strong tinge of the high society style of doing things, for the ex-governor's wife accuses him of attempting to hug her when she called at his office on philanthropic business and the governor does not deny it. But these Kansas Republican politicians, when they held their state convention a few days after the above episode endorsed the state administration, re-nominated Hoch and pointed with pride to party achievements, and commended "our Senator." Now whether it was Senator Burton, who is under a cloud so that his absence from the United States Senate is considered necessary, who was commended, or Senator Long, is problematical, but it was probably Burton for such birds of a feather must endorse each other. The tariff plundered farmers and independent voters of Kansas have an opportunity of voting for an honest and able man for governor, who no one can breathe a word of scandal against, for the public and private life of ex-Senator Harris, the Democratic candidate, is above reproach.

ALL TO ACCOMMODATE A TRUST.

Representatives of the Steel Trust have visited San Francisco, and assured the people of that city that "the allied companies of the trust have agreed to give San Francisco preference in delivering of all orders; and that the rest of the country will have to wait." The proposal to remit the duties on structural steel have made the trust exceedingly generous to San Francisco at the expense of "the rest of the country." Thus the trust kindly offers to take the question of a protective tariff on steel products out of politics. But what will the rest of the country say about that? Why should the rest of the country have to "wait"? Why should the progress of building be retarded to accommodate a trust which sells its goods cheaper to foreigners than to domestic consumers? The rest of the country will be likely to set up a cry for relief as loud as that which it sent up in behalf of San Francisco.

Got Horse From Cistern With Straw.

Four big loads of straw brought about the rescue of a horse owned by Henry Hennecke which fell into a deep cistern, near Alton, Mo. After several hours of vain planning, a neighbor conceived the idea of dumping straw into the cistern until it should be filled up, and the horse elevated to the surface.

The cow was jumping over the moon. "Oh, prunes!" exclaimed the little dog, when he had finished laughing. "I bet some one tooted an automobile behind her." And the cat was so tickled he stopped playing the fiddle.

Making Old Man Jump Off the Earth.

Writing from Abyssinia, a correspondent says: "Quaint customs prevail in these parts. When a father is getting along in years the son bids him climb into a tree and jump down from it's branches. If the old man staggers on landing, the son spears him on the spot; his usefulness is over."

NO CONTEST

But a Plain Business Proposition.

Chance to Make $50 in Gold.

Every Young Lady in Bourbon Eligible.

People are always crying "keep the money at home," and to help carry out this motto the Bourbon News is going to make a plain business proposition to the young ladies of Bourbon county, whereby they can take a trip to any place they desire and at the same time assist in pushing a home enterprise along without any scrambling contest whatever and also at the same time everybody will get value received for their investment. This is no contest where there will be any disappointments. No contest where some young lady will run in the lead until the last minute and then the one who has been running last to come in and defeat her by having her friends to buy enough coupons or subscribe for enough papers, to make her win over the one that has led throughout the contest. Our proposition is no fake, but simply a plain business proposition and is as follows:

Any young lady of Bourbon county who will bring to the Bourbon News office on or before July 15th, 1906, 75 cash subscribers we will give her $50 in gold, to be used as she likes.

Any old subscriber who is in arrears and pays up to date and for one year in advance to any of the young ladies who accept our offer will be counted in their list of new ones.

This proposition is open to every young lady in the county, and just as soon as you hand in the seventy-five names with the cash subscriptions, the $50 in gold will be handed to you.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me. Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Oberdorfer's drug store. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

FROG AS BIG AS A BULLDOG

Made Queer Noises and Made People Think of Ghosts.

Mysterious noises have been heard at a house, corner of Toure and Royal streets, New Orleans, for a long time past, until it has been termed the "haunted house."

The owners of the houses in that vicinity have received many complaints, and all the families near have moved out. There have been many attempts to "lay the ghost," but all were unsuccessful, and at last complaint was made to the police.

Wednesday night several police went to the house with clubs and lanterns, and after several hours' search the cause of the noise was located under the house.

It turned out to be an immense frog, weighing nearly 12 pounds, which had terrorized the people in that vicinity by his deep croakings.

Memorable Meeting

Of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky Knights Templar.

The Plumed Knights For Two Days Held the Keys to Our City

The 59th Annual Conclave Pronounced By All to Have Been a Grand Success.

Last night brought to a close the fifty-ninth Annual State Conclave of Knights Templar of Kentucky. For two days the city has been in the hands of the gallant Knights and fair ladies, and everything was done before and during the meeting to make it a grand success. The praise that was given to our town upon its decorations and to the hospitality of our people proved conclusively that the untiring efforts upon the part of the Couer de Lion Commandery and the citizens had been crowned with unthought-of success. All hearts and homes were opened for the visitors who began to arrive Tuesday afternoon.

The receiving Committee of Couer de Lion Commandery, headed by Smittie's great band, of Cincinnati, was kept busy meeting regular and special trains until they had received between twelve and fifteen hundred representatives for twenty-six Commanderies. Tuesday night looked very much like rain, but Wednesday morning rose bright and clear, an ideal day for the great parade. By 8 o'clock the town was one surging mass of humanity, people from all over the county having come in to witness the magnificent spectacle.

Exercises for the day began with devotional services at the Christian church at 9:30 a. m. The main audience room was reserved for the Knights, every seat being taken and many circling around the room with their white feathers resting upon their shoulders. The annex and galleries of this beautiful building were crowded beyond the limit with visiting ladies. The spacious lawn and street in front of the church were filled with as many people as were on the inside.

Promptly at 10 a. m., Miss Frances Barbee Johnson deftly touched the keys of the big pipe organ and opened the services with a beautiful organ solo. Then Sir Knight Frank Fithian raised his baton and the Paris Choral Society of fifty voices held the large audience spell bound by the rendition of "Sing Alleluia Forth" and "Gloria in Excelsis." The singing of the chorus on this occasion was the best ever heard in Paris.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Sir George Green, of Lawrenceburg, and the sermon preached by Rev. Sir J. Frank Williams, of Versailles. The services were very much like the services of the Episcopal Church, in fact, they were formulated by the late Bishop Dudley, of that denomination.

Immediately after the services the parade formed on High street, between Seventh and Twelfth, and intersecting streets.

The parade was headed by Grand Captain General Robert S. Moses, of Louisville, and Grand Marshal J. Quincy Ward, who looked every inch of a gallant Knight as he gracefully sat on his beautiful bay mare, with a mounted escort of twenty.

Then came Couer de Lion Commandery, of Paris, with Smittie's great marching band, leading the way over the long line of march. The Commanderies followed by their numbers, being interspersed with twelve bands of music, Grand Officers following in carriages. There were twelve hundred plumed Knights, representing twenty-six Commanderies, said to be the largest number ever in line on former occasions, except the last meeting in Louisville.

Thousands of people lined the streets and as their home commandery would pass hearty cheers would ring out.

The line of march brought them back down Main street for the review of the grand officers, and as they were lined up on each side for squares, with drawn swords, they presented a magnificent spectacle, one that will perhaps never be seen in Paris again until the plumed Knights hold another Conclave in our city. It took the parade just thirty-five minutes to pass the court house.

Too much praise cannot be given to Chief of Police Hill and Officer bishop, who kept a short distance in front of the parade clearing the streets of vehicles. Also of Mayor James O'Brien, who had the streets in such perfect order, having Main street washed off every morning by 7 o'clock. At 12:30 the Grand Commandery assembled in the County Court room in the court house, where Sir Emmett M. Dickson delivered an eloquent welcome address. The response was made by Eminent Sir John G. Cramer, of Lexington.

Thursday morning the business session of the Grand Commandery was held in the Masonic Lodge room in the Wilson Building. The following officers were elected.

Eminent Grand Commander—Thos. E. Keith, of Maysville.
Very Eminent Deputy Grand Commander—W. R. Johnston, of Lebanon.
Eminent Grand Generalissimo—R. P. Moses, of Louisville.
Eminent Grand Captain General—James H. Ewalt, of Paris.
Eminent Grand Senior Warden—J. G. Cramer, of Lexington.
Eminent Grand Junior Warden—William Yoeman, of Versailles.
Eminent Grand Treasurer—R. C. Stockton, of Richmond.
Eminent Grand Recorder—Albert H. Bryant, of Covington.
Eminent Grand Prelate—Lee D. Ray, Owensboro.
Eminent Grand Standard Bearer—Thos. P. Satterwhite, of Louisville.
Eminent Grand Sword Bearer—Mason P. Brown, of Frankfort.
Eminent Grand Warden—Chas. A. Smith, of Danville.
Eminent Grand Captain of Guard—Wm. E. Beard, of Paris.

NOTES.

On Wednesday in the basement of the court house, beneath a canopy of streamers of red, white and blue and emblems of the order, including bells that carried out the color scheme, was spread on long tables a most sumptuous and substantial repast given by Sir Knights and ladies of Couer de Lion, to the Sir Knights and ladies of the various Commanderies. Here 1,700 people were fed from 12 to 2 o'clock p. m. In a room set apart the Eminent Grand officers were also entertained by the hospitable ladies of the Sir Knights.

The reception given Wednesday by Covington Commandery, No. 7, at Odd Fellows Hall; Cynthiana Commandery, No. 16, at Mrs. Stone's on High street; Ryan Commandery, No. 17, at Mrs. Sweeney Ray's; Louisville Commandery No. 1, at Hotel Windsor, and Versailles Commandery, at Elks' Hall, will long be remembered by every one who had the pleasure of attending. We regret exceedingly the lack of space to make the special mention as each deserved.

The most lavish entertainers of the visit were the Couer de Lion, No. 12, of Louisville, who held a reception and lawn party at Bourbon College; Maysville, No. 10, who entertained with a lawn party at Dr. Frank Fithian's, and Louisville, No. 1, at Hotel Windsor.

Among the prominent Sir Knights present and participating in the parade were Hon. Sam H. Stone of Richmond, Postmaster George M. Dickey, of Cynthiana, Auditor W. S. Hager, of Frankfort, and Chas. P. Weaver, of Louisville.

The Paris Elks' Band escorted Newport Commandery, No. 13, in the parade, and our people were very proud of them. They not only made a good appearance but made good music.

Webb Commandery entertained yesterday afternoon with a reception at Odd Fellows' hall, given more especially to the citizens of Paris.

John M. Bedford, of Couer de Lion No. 4, of Atlanta, Ga., was in attendance upon the Conclave. Sir Knight Bedford was formerly of Bourbon, being a son of Mr. John W. Bedford, of this city.

The reception tendered the officers of the Grand Commandery Tuesday evening by Eminent Commander and Mrs. Wm. E. Board at their beautiful home on Houston avenue, was one of the most brilliant functions during the Conclave.

A large crowd waited for the exhibition drill to be given by Louisville, No. 1, yesterday afternoon on the public square, but it did not materialize. They had left their crack drill team at home.

The Carlisle Commandery entertained yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. J. S. Wilson with an elegant and very enjoyable reception, there not being such a crowd as at the others, on account of many of the visitors having gone home.

The festivities closed last night with a grand ball by Couer de Lion Commandery at the Elks' Hall. Smittie furnished the music and it was a brilliant affair.

Calling for "Pharaoh."

One of the ten plagues sent upon Pharaoh, the locusts, are at Smith Grove, Ky., by the millions. These pests come at regular periods of every sixteen years. The last locust year in Kentucky was in 1890. They made their appearance at Smith Grove last week, and now the fields, hills and woods resound with the dismal roar of tens of thousands of voices calling "Pharaoh." It is claimed that these insects do not eat anything for forty days, but they injure your shrubs and trees by splitting the bark unless they are protected. They are due in Bourbon.

TARIFF TO THE FRONT.

Trusts Selling Cheaper Abroad Than Here.

Those Republican Congressmen who are so anxious for proof of the Steel Trust selling cheaper abroad than here should read their own party paper more thoroughly. The government statistics show that 35,000 tons of steel billets were exported last month and the market expert of the New York Press says: "The major portion of these billets, however, are shipped back here in manufactured form. They are sold here for export at a price around $18 at the mills, while the existing quotation for billets for domestic consumption is $27."

But this writer, who certainly should be good enough authority for the most standpat Republican, further says: "Fully 20,000 tons of last month's billet shipments were consigned to Welsh mills, where they are to be rolled into plates, then dipped in tin and reshipped here for the purpose of making cans. The largest importer of these tin plates is the Standard Oil Company, which uses about 100,000 tons annually. The Beef Trust is also a very heavy buyer of tin plates made from the steel billets shipped from this country to Wales. Although practically all the raw material used in the making of these tin plates is of American origin, the tariff holds them to be subject to a duty of 1 1/2 cents per pound, as the process of making them into tin plates enhances the value. The Standard Oil Company uses these tin plates for the export of case oil, with the result that a drawback is given to it by the Government of the full import duty less 1 per cent." The Welshmen buy this American steel because it is sold for less than British made steel and according to the above Republican authority is about one-third less than the trust charges our own people.

We have the evidence of W. G. Raoul, who at the time he gave it, February 25, 1904, was President of the National Railroad Company of Mexico, quoted by Senator Bacon, of Georgia, in his speech on tariff abuses, which can be found in the Congressional Record of April 25, 1904, in which Mr. Raoul said: "In 1902 I secured bids on steel rails for Mexico from United States mills at about $24 delivered at Tampico, while the price I paid at the time for rails for our road in Texas was $28 at the mills."

So the steel trust was offering to pay the land and water freight from the mills at Pittsburgh to Tampico, Mexico, which could not have been less than $6 a ton, and deducting that amount from the price quoted of $24 delivered at Tampico would bring the price at the mills to $18 a ton or $10 a ton less than the price of steel rails for use in this country.

During last April there were no less than 23,141 tons of steel rails sold by the Steel Trust for export, so there is no doubt that the same underselling to foreigners still continues. Many other trusts are doing the same thing, for we hear of farmers in Canada and in other countries buying American agricultural machinery, fence wire and other American products for much less than our own farmers are buying similar articles made by the same Harvester Trust, the Steel Trust and other protected corporations. It is very difficult to get the price at which these products of the trusts are sold for export, for there is great secrecy maintained of these transactions, for obvious reasons. Still these doubting Republican Congressmen who cannot explain away the above given transactions will have to admit that the Democrats have furnished enough proof to convict these trusts of selling cheaper abroad than here, which the protective tariff allows them to do with impunity.

Some people think that because they once voted for a man they should clip coupons off him for the balance of his life.

It is not so tiresome the funniest thing in the world would be the conversation of a woman whose ambition is to be "literary."

Dr. Green arranges with the Niece of Dr. Boschee to handle her famous Uncle's Great Throat and Lung Cure.

The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chilly sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children proof against all contagious diseases.

Such a medicine is Boschee's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles.

The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr. Green from the niece of the famous Dr. Boschee, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Bad Stomach Makes

Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best adapted to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon feeble, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration of catarrh gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Blood-root and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficiency in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Robert A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

Did You Know?

Father William's Indian Tea, gathered in the Rocky Mountains, acts directly on the Mucous Membrane, purifies the Blood and cleanses the entire system of the microbes and terms of Catarrh, Hay Fever, Asthma, Clever Little Stories.

Ex-Senator William E. Chandler, of New Hampshire, who is now at the head of the Spanish Treaty Claims commission, missed the opportunity he had in the Senate of discussing public questions, and writes frequently to the newspapers on important topics. "What are you doing now, Chandler?" an old friend asked him the other day. "Oh," said Chandler, "I am a publicist," Chandler grinned. "A publicist," he said, "is a man who attends to everybody's business but his own."

Leavitt Thayer, of Sidney, Me., is one of the dry, humorous Yankees still to be found in the Kennebec valley. Recently he was discussing a summer not long ago, when all over Maine the farms suffered severely from drought. "Why," said Leavitt, "all the wells, ponds and brooks in the town of Sidney dried up, and we folks had to swim our cattle across the Kennebec and drive them three miles into Winslow to give them a drink."

In a town in Massachusetts the people had just put fire extinguishers in some of their big buildings. One day one of the buildings caught fire, and the extinguishers did not work just right. A few days later at the town meeting, some citizens tried to learn the reason. After they had freely discussed the subject one of them said: "Mr. Chairman, I make a motion that the fire extinguishers be examined ten days before every fire." The motion was seconded and adopted on a vote.

In the middle of the last century a prominent Boston Unitarian was asked to aid in building an orthodox church in Maine, where he had large possessions. He gave so freely that the collector was surprised, but the giver explained by saying: "I do not accept your doctrine, but I do not believe that anything but the fear of hell will keep those fellows down East from stealing my lumber."

A Year of Blood.

The year of 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds, at Oberdorfer's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

When you consider breeding, individuality, and the kind of colts he gets, Sunland Bourbon's fee is lower than any stallion we know of.

If you want a fine team, a good road horse, a high actor, all having speed breed your mare to Sunland Bourbon. It is well-known he gets the above kind.

Sunland Bourbon made quite a reputation last year as a great road horse, and those who saw him go now know that his record is no measure of his speed.
